

Case Report

A case report is a detailed report of the symptoms, signs, diagnosis, treatment, and follow-up of an individual patient. Case reports may contain a demographic profile of the patient, but usually describe an unusual or novel occurrence. Some case reports also contain a literature review of other reported cases.

TITLE OF CASE

Do not include “a case report” in the title. Do not use cryptic or humorous titles. Keep the title clinical and straight forward - this way people are more likely to find your article.

SUMMARY

This is freely available online and is the equivalent of an abstract. Use a maximum of 150 words summarising the the case presentation and outcome. We need a good flavour of the case – emphasise the learning points

CASE PRESENTATION

Give a comprehensive account of the presenting features, including the medical/social/family history.

- This is the patient’s story – please be sensitive to patient confidentiality
- How did they present?
- What is the relevant history? Why is this relevant?

- Explain your findings and how they influenced your decisions
- Do not use abbreviations for diseases or investigations
